

Children from poor Roman families had to work hard, but they still found some time to play.

Children from rich Roman families did not have to work and had more time to play because they had slaves to do all the work in the house.

The Romans favorite toys and games were:

	Balls Bats Board games Hobbyhorses Kites Models of people Models of animals Hoops Stilts Knucklebones (like Jacks)
	Boy's Games War games Wooden sword fights Wrestling Tag
	Girl's Games

	Rag dolls Wax dolls Board games
	Children also played with their pets Dogs Pigeons Ducks Quail Geese Monkeys - though these were rare Cats after 100AD
